

BRISTOL AREA ON THRESHOLD OF ENORMOUS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT, BUSINESSMEN ARE TOLD; ACTION URGED

P. R. R. Spokesman Tells Group That the Possibilities Are Great, But Borough Must Take Some Action — Consolidation of Bristol With Bristol Township is Suggested at The Meeting.

"Bristol looks good to me, even in the fog," was the opening remark of a P. R. R. representative at a meeting of Bristol businessmen called by Burgess I. J. Hetherington and held in the municipal building, last evening.

The development of Bristol, its possibilities and what is necessary to further its development, were some of the topics discussed.

There were representatives of the P. R. R., business men and borough officials who spoke.

The consolidation of Bristol with either a portion, or all of Bristol Township was suggested and its necessity for accomplishment of some of the things advocated was stressed.

Methods of financing expansion and rehabilitation of the borough's utilities and of getting more tax revenues were considered, as well as the equalization of assessments.

No definite action was taken as an outgrowth of the discussion, the meeting resulting merely in an expression by those assembled that some things should be done if Bristol is to benefit by the anticipated development. It was an airing of views and opinions.

The first speaker was Harold C. Millman, industrial agent of the P. R. R., who following an introduction by Burgess I. J. Hetherington said that "Bristol is on the threshold of a tremendous industrial development and is at the crossroads of world trade." He said that this area is in the middle of the markets and is in the center of raw materials. "Never has there been a town so ideally situated," he said.

Then Mr. Millman told of some of the things necessary to take full advantage of this opportunity and its strategic location. These were sewers, water, labor and housing. He explained how the industrial development will naturally be centered in Bristol Township because of the lack of sufficient room in the borough. He said that Bristol would be called upon to provide utilities for the development.

In mentioning the housing situation Mr. Millman informed that when an industry selects a location housing is always needed at once for its key technical men who have to be sent in. He said that a town to appeal to an industry seeking a location must have character. Those seeking such locations look a community over and they do not like to see a lot of loafers standing on street corners and in doorways. He said that he had been impressed with the Mill street improvements, both in the appearance of the shopping center and in the borough's street lighting.

He advised that sufficient money be gotten together somehow to extend the borough's utilities and he advised working together for the development of an area of 10 to 15 miles of Bristol. Bristol has got to grow, he said, and he indicated that the borough should go after industry. "Industry wants to be wanted."

He mentioned how the P. R. R. has purchased acreage in the Bristol Township area to prevent housing development on sites which can be developed industrially, mentioning that the P. R. R. is intensely interested in industrial development because of the freight revenue thus accruing.

In calling the gathering to order Burgess Hetherington said that he had invited the businessmen to the meeting to discuss Bristol and he asked that the businessmen take a more active interest in the borough affairs and attend the sessions of council. He indicated that three or four firms were interested in locating in the Crescent Corporation plant and that agreements might have been signed now. He spoke of the assessment situation and criticized the work of the assessors. He gave it as his opinion that with

RADIO ADDRESS OF HON. J. C. KUNKEL

Following is text of a radio address delivered by Cong. John C. Kunkel, candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator, in a statewide broadcast last night.

This is John Kunkel speaking in behalf of my candidacy for the U. S. Senate at the May 16th primaries. I was born and raised in Harrisburg, and so were my mother and father before me.

I am serving my twelfth year in Congress. During my six terms, I have been studying national affairs and our foreign affairs carefully day by day.

I don't pretend to know all the answers. No one does. Beware of anyone who boasts that he does. But the longer I've been in Congress the more I'm convinced that the big problems of Government are being decided without anyone laying out the cards on the table before the American people.

A SENSE OF URGENCY

That the U. S. hasn't been twiddling its thumbs in that strange realm where piloted planes travel nearly as fast as bullets is revealed in a report to Congress by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. On the whole the report shows that Uncle Sam is close to building "practical" faster-than-sound planes. The committee also feels that the old boy is top dog in the race.

There is little temptation to go overboard about these accomplishments. The prowess of the Bell X-1, a piloted ship that looks for all the world like a projectile with tiny wings and tail assembly, has already been well publicized. News that the X-1 had broken the sonic barrier—better than 760 miles per hour—was first aired in 1947.

A few weeks ago an unconfirmed report stated that the plane had flown at mach 3, or better than 1,900 m.p.h. Whether it has or has not hit this velocity is a matter only the Air Force knows. But it is revealed that the Navy is punching through the barrier at regular intervals in an experimental ship of its own design.

Perhaps the most intriguing thing about the NACA report is the matter of fact manner in which it discusses the various problems attendant to supersonic flight. There are reports of progress in reducing friction on thin metal fuselages traveling at hundreds of miles an hour; on metals to withstand the unbelievable temperatures generated by the new propulsion units; on the literally thousands of equations that must be solved either by actual flight or in wind tunnels.

The committee is quite frank in stating that there is no security involved in a great many of these developments. "Any nation willing to make the effort," says the committee, "can put ships like these in production. Another nation is making progress in supersonic developments, but we seem to be ahead."

The picture isn't all blue sky. Aggressive research and development is going on and will continue. Nevertheless, the committee feels a "sense of urgency" about the nation's future, which is shared by the public.

Hollywood is making Westerns now in which Indians shoot whites, but soldiers shoot only over the heads of redskins because to shoot them would be unfair to "minorities." It must be said for Hollywood that it is never bound by its former concepts of zaniness.

Householders are advised to demand census takers show their credentials. After all, they might be magazine salesmen.

Britain now wants an $8,000,000,000 "loan," presumably on the collateral of socialism. It doesn't look like good security.

Bristol Area On Threshold Of Industrial Development

proper assessment the assessed valuation of the borough would increase from approximately $8,000,000 to $15,000,000. He suggested an auditorium be built near the municipal parking lot.

John Smoyer, 3rd, president of borough council, was called upon to speak of the financial affairs of the borough. He told of a tour of the borough properties which the councilmen had taken last Sunday. He explained how the state has demanded the modernization of the sewage disposal plant, which it has been estimated will cost $300,000. He said that the borough can borrow $500,000 but that there would be about $350,000 debt remaining. He said that the plans provide for a sewage plant that will take care of about 34,000 people.

Figures were cited by Mr. Smoyer which showed that it is estimated that taxes will be collected in the borough for 1949 amounting to $85,000, and adding to this $40,000 profit from the water plant, $21,000 from amusement tax, $13,000 from parking meters, and $8,000 from other miscellaneous sources, the total revenue will be about $190,000 to operate the borough. In compiling the budget the various committees had requested $211,000, leaving a deficit of about $21,000. The budget will have to be cut that much, he indicated.

He told of the water table shrinking at the wells, but said there was enough water for housing but not sufficient for industry. He gave it as his opinion that the proper place to get a sufficient water supply was from the Delaware river and not from underground. He said that the figure of $100,000 to $750,000 had been mentioned as the cost of a new water station at Edgely.

The thought of consolidating Bristol and Bristol Township was thrown into the discussion at the end of the meeting by Richard T. Myers, member of council. It struck a responsive chord, and the opinion was voiced that such a consolidation will have to come if either of the two political subdivisions are to prosper and grow and to take full advantage of the opportunity which now appears to be knocking at the door of both districts.

Clyde Waterman, president of the Bristol Chamber of Commerce, spoke briefly, and William H. H. Fine talked about the tax collections and praised industry for its help in collecting the tax from employees. "Never sell Bristol short," said Mr. Fine. He told of the low tax rate enjoyed here and explained how some taxes for three years back are now being collected. He said that all must share in the expense of operating the borough.

Charles Richman, president of Mill Street Business Men's Association, in a few well-chosen words, gave it as his opinion that a new precedent was set by the meeting. He said that previously there had appeared to be a spirit of antagonism between the borough government and the business men. "We are not in politics," he said, "but we are interested in seeing how the town is run." He pledged the full support and co-operation of the association.

Sheridan B. Metz, president of the Bristol-Harriman Business Association, told of the community problem of traffic and parking in the sixth ward, and he asked that the proper authorities give the matter full consideration and study in an attempt to solve it.

In referring back to the suggested consolidation of Bristol and Bristol Township, Burgess Hetherington mentioned that he knew that Croydon would like to become a borough. He said that the northern portion of Bristol Township could easily be merged with Bristol. He said that he thought it was only a question of time before the school systems of the two districts would have to merge.

Burgess Hetherington announced that shortly he will open an office in the municipal building.

Maxwell J. Gordon suggested that something be done to give the main artery of traffic, former Route 13, Pond street, Farragut avenue and East Farragut avenue, a common name as a means of eliminating confusion which now exists by the various names by which sections of this main artery of travel are now known. He suggested Delaware avenue.

Councilman George Duffy acted as secretary.

Others introduced were Charles Omrod, P. R. R. industrial representative, and Clifford Taylor, local P. R. R. freight agent.

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slow down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today! HIBERNIANS IN 2 EXTRA PERIODS BEAT TULLYTOWN

In one of the most exciting games of the season, last night, on the Rohm & Haas floor, the Hibernians won out over Tullytown A. C. in a two-extra period contest. Score at the end of the regulation time was 37-37. The first extra session saw the score knotted at 42-42, while the final count was Hibernians, 52; Tullytown, 45.

It was the fourth straight loss for Tullytown, and the win enabled the Hibos to move into a tie for third place in the Bristol Basketball League.

The game was close from start to finish, with the score being deadlocked on several occasions. However, with seconds to play, Tullytown still had a three-point lead, 37-34. Simmons scored a twin-point shot for the Hibos to cut the lead to one point. Just as the whistle sounded, ending the game, "Billy" Ennis was fouled. He was given his foul throw and converted, to tie the score at 37-37.

freedom, individual initiative, and personal integrity must prevail "over all sinister and clever proposals of those ideologies which are foreign to our Canadian and American way of life."

Mr. Benton inducted two new members, Lewis P. Bond, of Langhorne, and William D. Horbury, of Pottsville, into active membership of the club, and in so doing briefly traced the history of Kiwanis International since its founding 35 years ago at Detroit, Mich. He described a number of its accomplishments, and said the organization now embraces more than 3,000 clubs and 200,000 members throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii and the Yukon Territory.

The meeting was under direction of the club committee on education and fellowship, which is headed by John McDonough.

Four Teen-Agers Painfully Hurt When Car Strikes Tree

Bucks County Rescue Squad, Crofton, used its ambulances to remove the quartet to the Nazareth Hospital, Philadelphia. X-rays will be taken today according to Chief Seader, in an endeavor to determine any internal injuries to the four.

The four were travelling on Newport road, toward Bristol, it is said, when at a curve at Laing's Gardens the car ran head-on into a tree at the right of the road. Fox was the owner of the car, according to officers.

Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Costes, is engaged to Karasinski, her parents state. She is one of five children.

The group had left the Costes home at 7.15, it is stated, and was en route to a motion picture show here.

Radio Address of Hon. John C. Kunkel

knows the great crisis that this country is facing, who knows how and why all this came about, and who will fight fearlessly to prevent what I fully believe to be impending disaster.

Here is my platform in brief. Deficit spending must be stopped at once. The first step is to cut the cost of government and balance the national budget. Stop all new spending programs until money is in sight to pay for them. Deficit-financing is a deadly menace to the public welfare. Only grave emergencies justify pushing our bills over for unborn children to pay. All expenditures should be cut to the bone. The Hoover plan for reorganizing the executive branch of the government should be adopted in its major phases. I have voted for the Reorganization Bill and the President's plans submitted in pursuance thereof right down the line and will continue to do so.

I have consistently supported the Civil Rights program on every occasion when it was an issue before the House. Everyone is entitled to a job and full opportunity. No one should be disqualified because of his color or creed for any job or opportunity for which he is otherwise qualified.

I am opposed to Socialized Medicine, specifically to the Compulsory Health Insurance Program advocated by Oscar Ewing and President Truman.

A basic Labor Law is essential. The Taft-Hartley Bill established a sound basis from which to work forward. I voted for the Taft-Hartley Bill. I defended it in the 1948 campaign, explaining in detail why it was helpful to the union man, the non-union man, to management and to the general public. At the same time changes are needed to make the law more workable. Nearly all of these changes—mainly favorable to labor—were included in the Wood Bill of the 1949 session. President Truman forced the defeat of the Wood Bill by a narrow margin. Thus he prevented fair and equitable changes in the Taft-Hartley Bill, merely because he wanted to keep it for a campaign issue.

There has been a deliberate and calculated build-up of Governor Duff, with the aim of heading off or discouraging any rival candidate for the Republican Senatorial Nomination. Harvey Taylor long ago abandoned any pretense of neutrality or open-mindedness. The State Chairman, as you know, is supposed to remain neutral during the primaries and then devote his energy to electing the ticket chosen by the Republican voters. Harvey's former "I'm all out for Duff and I'm for Harmony" has changed to "NO one can come to our meetings without the pass word, 'I'm for Duff.'"

Now, that doesn't bother me one bit. I welcome the support of any and all Chairmen, Vice-Chairmen and others holding positions of honor and responsibility in the Republican Party. But I know the pressures the County Chairmen are under. Many of them hold State jobs. Others have friends or relatives who do. Governor Duff's "Heads will Roll" threats are frequent enough to be well known.

Why doesn't this build-up bother me? Because my appeal is going direct to the voters—to you men and women of this state. I'm going to show, in simple language, how the handout state will destroy welfare—not give it; how it will deprive you of the security you have, and can never give you the security it promises.

Why do I say that many county leaders really don't want Duff? Because they know Duff can't beat Myers. Senator Myers is a pleasant fellow. He is not arrogant. He is plausible. Against him, Governor Duff has no issue based on any principle. It is a case of Duff offering 50 cents with Myers offering a Dollar. The people of Pennsylvania are left on the sidelines with no one showing them or even trying to show them what is at stake—with no one making the struggle to spell out the economic and social facts involved—which mean life and freedom to them and their children. Where the issue is "Do you want 50 cents or do you want a Dollar?"—the answer has always been "I'll take the Dollar." On this basis, Duff would lose. Where the issue is one of principle, our history proves that the people do rally to the side of principle, if only the facts are made clear. In the field of patronage, Senator Myers' resources far outweigh Governor Duff's. But how can Governor Duff complain of patronage being used against him, when he himself is using patronage as his one big means of trying to win the nomination?

President Truman and Senator Myers believe they won the 1948 election by their attacks upon the Eightieth Congress, which was Republican. They believe that they can win again this fall by centering their attack upon the record of that Congress and the Republican members of the Eighty-first Congress.

The nature of the Truman-Myers attack already is known. It will be the 1948 Truman campaign all over again. Mr. Truman won primarily because the Republican candidates did not stand on the record of Congress. They were not able to turn the President's accusations against him—not prepared, for example, to point out that the Republican 80th Congress is the only Congress in 18 years which was able to balance the Federal Budget, accumulate a surplus for debt-retirement, and still reduce taxes. By upholding the 80th Congress in 1948 I was re-elected by a majority of 35,000 votes.

We can do it again this fall. It seems self-evident that the Republicans must have, as their candidate for the U. S. Senate this year a man who has been through the mill at Washington—a man who knows the National issues inside out, who knows all about what Congress has done, and why, by reason of having served there and shared in the debates and joined in the roll-calls.

If, as is inevitable, the main campaign debate next fall is going to be over whether the Republican record in Congress is good or bad, who else can possibly be qualified to hold up the Republican end except a Republican Congressman? How could it be done by a state official with few prior contacts in National affairs, whose experience in politics has been confined within the borders of this commonwealth?

Is it not clear that if this question could be divorced from personalities and political patronage, the Republican Party would have no incentive whatever to turn to the Governor's office for its Senatorial candidate this year?

Unhappily, the question cannot be separated from personalities and ambitions and other emotions. Nor can it be considered entirely free from this matter of political influence.

You no longer hear about the Republican program for Pennsylvania. Now it's called the Duff program. Good Republicans resent that. The program in Pennsylvania is a Republican program, made possible by the fine work of Governors James and Martin, who put the State back on a sound financial basis after a previous era of run-away spending. Most of the original authorizations and appropriations for the Mental Health, Stream Clearance and other programs were put through during the Martin administration. The work could not be done then because of shortages of men and materials. Governor Duff fell heir not only to the ideas and the laws, but also to large sums of money already appropriated. His special innovation in these plans was to throw the State back into deficit financing.

Yet all this has suddenly become the Duff program. What has become of the Republican party in all this?

While Senator Martin did advance Mr. Duff into line for the Governorship, there is no reason why Governor Duff should be permitted to ride into the Senate on former Governor Martin's coat tails by allowing him to turn a Republican program into his own personal property. And didn't a long series of Republican Legislatures have something to do with this program too?

During this spring, there will be many questions I shall ask Governor Duff.

Listen in to the radio talks I shall make from time to time, and also watch for the answers to my questions.

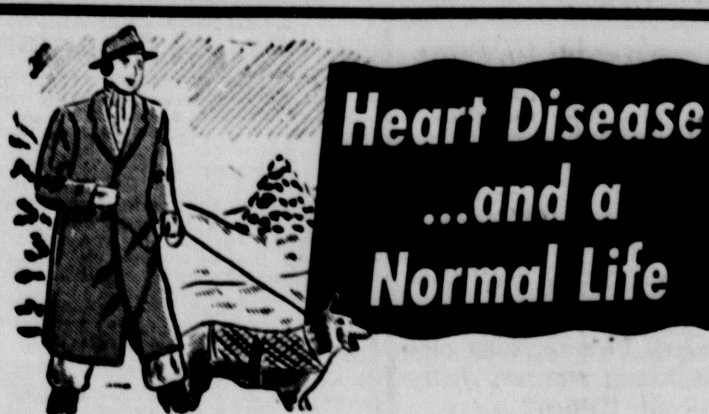

In addition to radio talks, I plan statewide tours to take me into all the sixty-seven counties. This campaign is going to be carried to all the men and women of Pennsylvania.

Thank you and goodnight.
